

José J. Villamil, B.Sc., Chairman and CEO of Estudios Técnicos, is an economist who has worked both in Puerto Rico and abroad on a wide range of subjects. He is a former President of the Inter American Planning Society. Mr. Villamil has been a visiting professor at various universities, including Harvard University and the Institute of Development Studies at the University of Sussex in Great Britain. He chaired the PR Chamber of Commerce in 2001-2003. In 2004, he was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by Metropolitan University for his contributions to economic development. He has published extensively on development and planning subjects, and was awarded the prestigious John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation fellowship for work on development issues in small economies.